

Disclosure of Competing Interests for 2022

The American Journal of Geriatric Psychiatry has implemented a policy requiring its editorial board to disclose any potential competing interests in the amount of $5,000 or more and occurring within the past 24 months, including consultation fees from pharmaceutical companies or honoraria and travel expenses from them. At the time this issue went to press, the following board members had reported their competing interests during the previous 24 months:

- Howard Aizenstein, M.D., Ph.D., is an employee of University of Pittsburgh. He receives Grant/Research Support from NIH. He received payment for serving on an advisory board from Eisai (March, 2021).
- Steve Albert Ph.D. has no competing interests to disclose.
- Carmen Andreescu, M.D. receives Grant/Research support from NIMH, Brain & Behavior Research Foundation.
- Stephan Arndt, Ph. D has no competing interests to disclose.
- Aartjan Beekman, M.D., Ph.D., has no competing interests to disclose.
- Dan Blazer, M.D., Ph.D. receives an honorarium from The American Journal of Geriatric Psychiatry.
- Olivera Bogunovic, M.D. has no competing interest to disclose.
- Patrick Brown, Ph.D. is an employee at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons and also New York State Psychiatric Institute.
- Amy L. Byers, Ph.D., MPH is an employee at University of California, San Francisco and San Francisco VA Health Care System and receives grant/research support from NIH and U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.
- Maria Caserta, M.D., Ph.D. has no competing interests to disclose.
- Jie Chen, Ph.D. receives grant support from NIMHD and NIA.
- Jeffrey Cummings, M.D. has provided consultation to Acadia, Actinogen, Alkahest, AlphaCognition, AriBio, Biogen, BioVie, Cassava, Cerecin, Corium, Cortexyme, Diadem, EIP Pharma, Eisai, GemVax, Genentech, Green Valley, GAP Innovations, Grifols, Janssen, Karuna, Lilly, Lundbeck, LSP, Merck, NervGen, Novo Nordisk, Oligomerix, Optoceutics, Ono, Otsuka, PRODEO, Prothena, ReMYND, Resverlogix, Roche, Sage Therapeutics, Signant Health, Simcere, Sunbird Bio, Suven, TrueBinding, and Vaxxinity pharmaceutical, assessment, and investment companies. He is supported by NIGMS grant P20GM109025; NINDS grant U01NS093334; NIA grant R01AG053798; NIA grant P20AG068053; NIA grant P30AG072959; NIA grant R35AG71476; Alzheimer's Disease Drug Discovery Foundation (ADDF); Ted and Maria Quirk Endowment; and the Joy Chambers-Grundy Endowment. He owns the copyright of the Neuropsychiatric Inventory. He has stocks/options in Vaxxinity, Behrens, Alzheon, MedAvante-Prophase, Acumen.
- Breno Diniz, M.D., Ph.D. is an employee of University of Connecticut Health Center and has received Grant/Research Support from National Institute of Health.
- Nancy J Donovan M.D. is an employee of Brigham and Women's Hospital (BWH) and received private philanthropic gifts of $2.5M during the past 2 years to support her stewardship of the Geriatric Psychiatry Division at BWH.
- Julie Dumas, Ph.D. has no competing interests to disclose.
- Karen L. Fortuna, Ph.D. LICSW has received funds from K-Health and offers consulting through Social Wellness and Emissary Health.
- Jane Gagliardi, M.D., MHS, is a consultant for the University of California, Irvine –Train New Trainers Primary Care Psychiatry Fellowship (<https://www.psychiatry.uci.edu/fellowship/train-new-trainers-primary-care-psychiatry.asp>) – I serve as Associate Director of this educational program

---

<https://doi.org/10.1016/j.jagp.2022.12.004>

- Joseph Gallo, M.D., M.P.H., has no competing interests to disclose.
- Oliver Glass, M.D. is an employee at Northeast Georgia Physicians Group.
- Philip Harvey, Ph. D has received consulting fees or travel reimbursements from Alkermes, Bio Excel, Boehringer Ingelheim, Karuna Pharma, Merck Pharma, Minerva Pharma, SK Pharma, and Sunovion (DSP) Pharma in the period since the last disclosure. He receives royalties from the Brief Assessment of Cognition in Schizophrenia (Owned by WCG Verasci, Inc. and contained in the MCCB). He is chief scientific officer of i-Function, Inc.
- Ladson Hinton, M.D. has no competing interests to disclose.
- Mustafa Husain, M.D. is an employee at UT Southwestern Medical Center, Dallas, TX. He has received Grant/Research Support from NIH, NIMH, NIA, NINDA, Brain Initiative.
- Have received in the past Industry Support Research funding from Abbott (ANM), Cyberonics, Neuronetics, Brainsway, NeoSync.
- Helen C. Kales, M.D., has no competing interests to disclose.
- Scott Kim, MD, Ph.D. has no competing interests to disclose.
- Jordan Karp, M.D. Receipt of compensation for editorial work on Journal of Clinical Psychiatry. He is a consultant for Aifred Health (potential for equity); Biogen.
- Helen Lavretsky, M.D. has received grant/research support from Forest/Allergan.
- Hochang Benjamin Lee, M.D. has received grant/research support from NIH, HRSA, and Chernowitz Foundation. He has received an honorarium from Academy of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry for being the Editor-in-Chief for Journal of the Academy of Consultation-Liaison psychiatry.
- Susan Lehmann, M.D. has no competing interests to disclose.
- Juan Li, Ph.D. has no competing interests to disclose.
- Jeffrey Lyness, M.D. receives financial or material support from American Board of Psychiatry & Neurology, Inc. and Wolters Kluwer (for UpToDate royalties).
- William M. McDonald, M.D. is a member of the American Psychiatric Association (APA) Council on Research representing ECT and Neuromodulation Therapies. Dr. McDonald is compensated as the chair of the DSMB for an NIA sponsored multicenter study. He is on the Board of Skyland Trail and 3Keys. He is a paid consultant for Signant Health and Sage Therapeutics. He is paid as a deputy editor of the American Journal of Psychiatry and on the editorial board of Personalized Medicine. He has received past funding from the Stanley Foundation, Soterix, Neuronetics, NeoSync and Cervel Neurotherapeutics. He has endowed chair funded by the JB Fuqua Foundation. He is an employee of Emory University School of Medicine.
- Karin Neufeld, M.D., MPH is an employee at John Hopkins University School of Medicine and has received Grant/Research Support from NIH and AHRQ.
- Gregory Pontone, M.D., MHS is a consultant for Acadia Pharmaceuticals Inc.
- Charles Reynolds III, M.D. has royalties or licenses from Pittsburgh Sleep Quality Index: University of Pittsburgh, Walters Kluwers and Oxford University Press. He receives consulting fees from Medical College of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, Weill Cornell School of Medicine, University of Maryland School of Public Health, University of South Florida and Washington University of St.Louis School of Medicine. He receives payment or honorarium from American Society for Clinical Psychopharmacology, American College of Neuropsychopharmacology and American Association for Geriatric Psychiatry: for service as editor in chief of Am J. Geriatric Psychiatry. He participates gratis in DSMB's for several NIH-sponsored studies: Harvard, UC Davis, Hopkins, and Cornell/Miller School of Medicine at Miami. He has a leadership or fiduciary role for the Dirigo Maine Geriatrics Society (unpaid).
- Juleen Rodakowski, OTD, MS, OTR/L is an employee at the University of Pittsburgh and has received Grant/Research Support from NIH and NEA.
- Quincy Samus, Ph.D. is an employee of Johns Hopkins University. He receives Grant/Research Support from National Institutes of Health, BrightFocus Foundation, Centene Corporation, Sibley Memorial Hospital Foundation and Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. He is a Consultant for Welltower (institutional consultant) and Weber Human services (individual consultant). Dr. Samus is an inventor of technology that external entities have licensed from the Johns Hopkins University. This arrangement has been reviewed and approved by the Johns Hopkins University in accordance with its conflict of interest policies.

Disclosure of Competing Interests for 2022

- Ingmar Skoog, M.D., Ph.D. has received honorarium as one of the chairs for the Artemida study and for giving talks with Takeda.
- Gwenn Smith, Ph.D. has received grant/research support from National Institute of Health/National Institute on Aging and Functional Neuromodulation, Inc.
- David Steffens, M.D., receives Grant Funding from the National Institutes of Health, the Patient-Centered Outcomes Research Institute and the American Association for Geriatric Psychiatry.
- Alan Thomas, Ph.D., M.R.C.Psych, has received grant/research support from GE Healthcare.
- Joshua Thorpe, Ph.D. MPH receives Grant/Research Support from the Department of Veterans Affairs, Health Services & Development and the NIH-National Institute on Aging.
- Ipsit Vahia, M.B.B.S., M.D. is an employee of McLean Hospital and receives grant/research support from National Institute for Aging, A2 Collective, Once Upon a Time Foundation, Harvard Deans Initiative on Aging. He is a consultant for Otsuka and receives other financial or material support from Emerald Innovations.